FITO BLANKO

Roberto “Fito Blanco” Testa is an award winning Panamanian Canadian singer/songwriter/producer. Fito began writing rhymes in English and Spanish by combining his Panamanian Reggae influences with a north American delivery to create his own style.

In 2010 he independently released 'VIP' ft Fuego . 'VIP' charted on 3 U.S Latin Billboard Charts in 2011 and quickly became a club favourite among Dj's. His follow up single 'Pegadito Suavecito' topped the radio charts in the beginning of 2012. The re-released 'Pegaito Suavecito' (with Elvis Crespo) reached #1 on the Billboard Latin Tropical Chart in November of the same year. In 2013 'Pegadito Suavecito' was nominated for ' Best Urban Performance' at the Latin Grammy and was awarded Platinum status by the U.S RIAA. In 2014 Fito was recognized with a BMI Award of Excellence. In 2015 Blanco's song 'Meneo' was featured on the official soundtrack for the blockbuster hit Furious 7. The soundtrack reached #1 in the Billboard Hot 200 Albums sales chart.

In 2016 Fito was recognized with the 'Number 1 song award' by the Society of Composers Authors and Music Publishers Canada. Blanco was inducted in the 'Canadian Music Walk Of Fame' in his home city of Mississauga the year after. His song “OLE OLE” was selected as the Official FIFA 2018 World Cup song for the Swiss national team and was heard in stadiums across Russia during the tournament. Fito kick started 2019 charting with two top 10 Billboard Singles. He featured on Bright Lights EDM hit “Gringa” peaking 6 in Electronic Dance club charts. He also co produced Elvis Crespo's lead single “Ella Me Beso” which also hit the top 10 Tropical Billboard charts. Blanco's latest collaboration “ YES” with Karl Wolf and Super Sako is the first international reggaeton recorded by an arabic artist and is quickly climbing charts worldwide. Fito is also featured on “Acapella” by the Czech superstar Mikolas Josef and R&B legend Frankie J.
